The NONWOVENS WORLD Directory has been the only directory published for the nonwovens industry since 2002

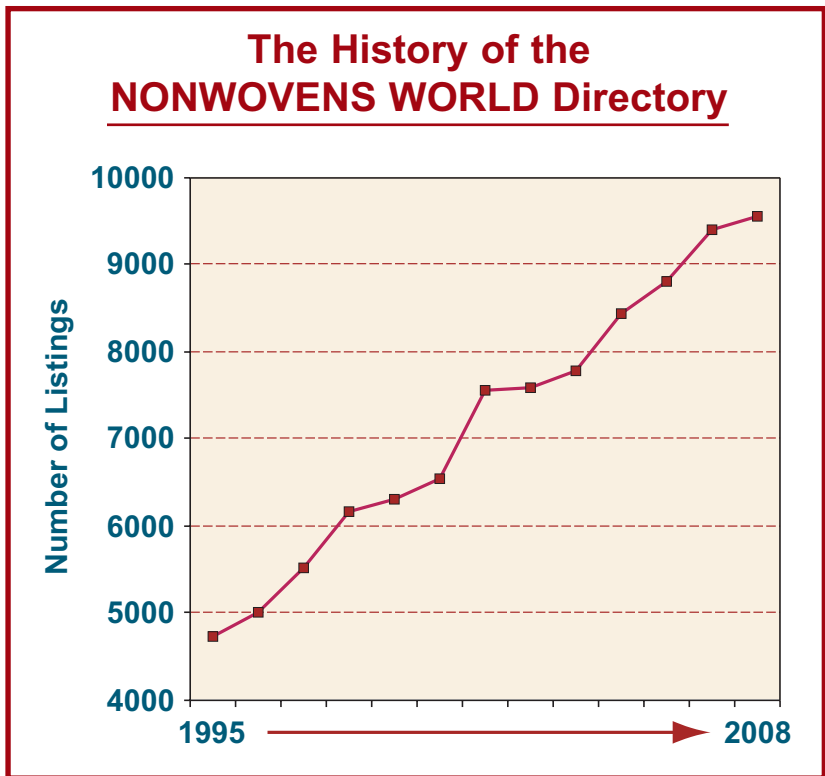

The NONWOVENS WORLD Directory is the only directory published for the nonwovens industry. Fully updated from the 2006 edition, the information is correct and current, with new e-mails, phone and fax numbers, and the latest company information, all in a truly usable form. Also, we are especially proud of the fact that we don't include thousands of "junk" listings in an effort to inflate the listings count. We remove companies that have gone out of business and add companies new to the industry, striving to offer the industry's highest quality products. We guarantee that you will agree.

(Available in hard copy only)
